

Master Degree programs in RU & KZ

Current Master Programs

RU universities:

KSAU: “Food Products of Plant Origin”

KalmSU: “Safety of Food Products” within the field “Food products of animal origin”

BSAA: “Food safety, food processing and marketing of traditional food products” within the field of Animal Science (to be launched since September 2015)

TuvSU – presented the bachelor program in the field

KZ universities:

PSU: "Technology of food products"

KSU: “Production technology of livestock products”;

KSU, KATU: “Veterinary Sanitation”

Current Master Programs

RU universities:

- 1 credit=36 hours
- Practical training and research work are united in the curriculum

KZ universities:

- 1 credit=45 hours (theory)
- Practical training and research work are different components of the curriculum

Current Master Programs in RU & KZ universities

- have basic and major courses
- basic courses include Philosophy; IT-related courses; Foreign Language
- compulsory courses and elective courses (defined by the university)